APPLY NOW FOR THE 2015 STAR ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Why Should You Apply for STAR's 2015 Environmental Leadership Awards?? We'll Give You a Few Reasons...

1. You work hard! Get recognized for it!

We know that your job increasing recycling rates across Texas can be demanding and often thankless. Well we're here to thank you! You should feel good about what you do and we want to play a part in making that happen.

2. Winning awards helps to boost morale

If you have an office full of stellar employees who have been working especially hard on a project, nominate them for an award! They will feel appreciated and grateful that you recognized their efforts.

3. Awards look impressive to local elected officials

If you work for a city, county or COG, it can be hard sometimes to get anyone to pay attention to you or understand the value of your department. Well, winning an award like this one could inspire your City council to support you in future endeavors.

4. Your success might inspire someone else

By submitting your project for a Texas Environmental Leadership Award, you are sharing stories of your success with other Texans across the state. If we truly want to increase recycling rates statewide, it's important that we share what works and what doesn't with each other.
