

Project Mediation Subcommittee

The Project Mediation Subcommittee's responsibility is to examine opportunities for the RTC to facilitate the implementation of transportation improvements through mediation. Projects which are regional in nature, included in the Metropolitan Transportation Plan and that are opposed by one or more jurisdictions would be candidates for this process. The emphasis of the proposed process is to keep lines of communication open in order to keep a project moving forward and also to avoid litigation.